

PERMISSION FOR DIGITALLY RECORDING AND VIDEOTAPING THERAPY SESSIONS

Therapist's Explanation: As a primary tool in Gottman Method Couples Therapy, and in order to augment your therapy work, I use videotape feedback as part of therapy sessions. This means that I may ask to videotape you during specific dialogues or exercises, or during entire sessions. We will play back these tapes in session to help you see patterns of behavior between the two of you and to help you process conflicts. By viewing the videotapes in sessions, it allows us to "stop action" and process how you might approach a conflict in a more productive way. It also allows you to witness your progress as your relationship becomes more satisfying to both of you.

In addition to in-session use, I may wish to use the videotapes to receive consultation from Dr. John or Dr. Julie Gottman or an independently practicing clinician who has received training from The Gottman Institute (TGI), or to provide such trainings. This may occur during the time of treatment or thereafter for purposes of peer review, education and quality assurance. During this process, your name will be kept confidential. In addition, all matters discussed in consultations will remain completely confidential within TGI staff. The videotapes are not part of your clinical record and will be used for no other purpose without your written permission and they will be erased when they are no longer needed for these purposes.

These tapes/files are my property and will remain solely in my possession during the course of your therapy. Copies may be sent/viewed by TGI for the purposes noted above. Should you wish to review these tapes for any reason, we will arrange a session to do so. These materials will remain in locked facilities at all times or in HIPPA compliant digital applications. Clients' Agreement I understand and accept the conditions of this statement and give my permission to have my therapy sessions videotaped or digitally recorded. I understand I may revoke this permission in writing at any time but until I do so it shall remain in full force and effect until the purposes stated above are complete.
